School Trips

School trips are popular among Japanese students. Many students visit famous places in Japan, and some students go to other countries. Students travel with their friends and teachers, so they enjoy their school trips.