

Interview Card

Stamp Cards

These days many shops provide various kinds of stamp cards to attract shoppers. Some of these are for discounts and others can be used to get free gifts. However, some customers complain that they get too many stamp cards wherever they shop. They think it is too troublesome to carry all the stamp cards and so give up the chance to use them.

Your story should begin with this sentence: One day, Tomoko and her father were checking out at the cashier at the supermarket.
