

Interview Card

Internship Programs

Today, more and more companies are beginning internship programs. Students apply to the company of their choice and can actually work there for about two weeks. These students can learn about the company and the work itself, so they think an internship is very practical. Companies also welcome these students because they can contribute to society.

A

B

With AUDIO!!

AURASMA

Follow Eigo Ganbare on Aurasma!

