Judge 1: Hello.

Choi: I'm Choi Sung-Bong. I'm 22 years old.

Judge 1: I saw your (¹ application) this morning. Why did you left "family" (² blank)?

Choi: I was in the (³ orphanage) when I was three. Then, I ran away when I was five after being (⁴ beaten) by people there.

Judge 2: Then, how did you live on since then?

Choi: I sold gums or energy drinks on the street. I had that life for about ten years.

Judge 1: Did you go to school?

Choi: No. I took a test to pass elementary and junior high school. High School was the first school I've been to.

Judge 1: You're (⁵ unbelievable)! Are you going to sing today?

Choi: Yes.

Judge 1: Do you enjoy singing?

Choi: I like singing because it's the first thing I liked after living in the street. I'm not a good singer, but I just like it.

Judge 1: Let me hear you sing.

Judge 1: I just want to give you a hug.

Judge 2: Why do you want to sing?

Choi: One day, when I was selling gums at a night club. I saw a (⁶ vocalist) who was singing on the stage. I was (⁷ fascinated). Since then, I started to like singing.

Judge 2: No matter what happens in this competition, I'd like to give you vocal lessons. Thank you for your awesome performance!
